

Name: .....

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

Meole Brace School

Summer Holiday

Big Read

- In this booklet you will find a range of activities to help you record your summer holiday reading.
- Complete this booklet and bring it into school at the start of Year Seven.
- Each completed activity will earn a vivo reward from your English teacher. Good Luck!

| Date                 | Book Read                                       | Three words or phrases that describe the book |
|----------------------|---|---|
| 6 th July | 'The Wreck of the Zanzibar' by Michael Morpurgo | Thought-provoking and realistic. A good read. |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |
|                      |   |   |

You can choose from this list of words to describe the book:
 exciting, imaginative, fast-moving, thought-provoking, sensitive,
 topical, serious, lively, informative, realistic, inspiring, descriptive,
 funny, frightening, gripping, sympathetic, disturbing, action-packed, amusing, engaging

Try adding some words of your own!

Creative Response

Complete one or more of the activities below:

- Describe the main character: their looks, dress, how they talk and their personality.
- Write a diary entry that a character might write after an event in the story.
- Write a quiz based on a book that you have read. Don't forget to write the answers at the bottom on the page.

A large, empty rectangular box with rounded corners and a purple border, designed for writing a creative response. The box has a decorative scroll-like shape at the top right and bottom left corners, with a grey shaded area inside the scroll at the top right.

Alternative front cover

Use this page to create a new front cover for a book that you have read.

Information to include:

- The title of the book.
- The name of the author.
- A relevant picture.
- Key words describing the book or a review.

